PROMINENT COUPLE HELD FOR LIQUOR VIOLATION

NEW YORK, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Phillip Catalano and his wife, better known as Jane Herveux, aviatrix and captain in the aviation section of the police reserves, are charged respectively with violating the anti-barbette and the prohibition laws. The fashionable district bordering on Central Park was startled yesterday as police raided Catalano's apartment. Jugs of wine, labels of well known brands of whiskey and gin, and bottles containing drugs, the police say, were seized.

The raid was made after a policeman called at the house several times, taking music lessons from Mrs. Catalano's mother, who lives with her. When the lessons were to be paid for, the policeman brought her "sweetheart," a detective, to pay for them.

Six of the furnaces, however, will be started again Sunday night. The six to resume use natural gas as fuel. The shut down is due to the coal shortage.

BUSINESS NOT DISCOURAGED DESPITE RAIL, COAL STRIKES

CLEVELAND, O., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Business is not discouraged, despite the coal and rail strikes, and "is anchoring to those basic principles which underlie sound business," according to the monthly review of the Fourth Federal Reserve Bank, issued today. Although strike conditions have become a definite menace to iron and steel production and overshadow all conditions of new business or prices in that industry and are resulting in no more uncertain conditions in the coal industry, encouragement is felt in other lines.

Wage Increase For 5,000 Miners

KNOXVILLE, TENN., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—A wage agreement granting $2.50 a day increase to 5,000 miners in 25 operations in the Kentucky-Tennessee field was negotiated at Cincinnati yesterday between the unions and the Kentucky and Tennessee Coal Operators' Association, according to a statement given out here by district 19, headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America.

CHICAGO, July 29.—(A. P.)—Mine Workers, announced the agreement as restoring the 1920 scale. The new scale is an increase, but as given out by the operators, the agreement is with "individual" miners and does not recognize the unions. The mines are in the Pineville district, along the Tennessee District 19 headquarters, United

Miners' Union Officials Meet To Consider Strike Condition In 4 States

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—After a three-hour conference here today of the international officers of the United Mine Workers and the district presidents of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, John L. Lewis, the miners' chief, repeated his statement of Thursday that he had every reason to believe that an interstate wage conference would soon be arranged. The strike situation in the four states was thoroughly reviewed, Mr. Lewis said, and added that he was gratified by the number of operators who are showing a willingness to enter a joint wage conference.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—District presidents of the central competitive fields, comprising western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, went into conference with the international officers of the United Mine Workers here today to consider strike conditions in those states and prospects of calling a four-state wage conference.

Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, said he had no information that a four-state conference was imminent, except what he had seen in the newspapers. The Illinois leader, who has been at odds with International President John L. Lewis, over organization matters, said that he had seen from an announcement made by Mr. Lewis that a four-state conference had been fixed up without consulting the Illinois miners, who represent one quarter of the organization. All that needs to be done, he said he supposed, was to fix the time and place.

President John Hessler, of Indiana, has replied to the request of the governor of Indiana that sufficient miners be permitted to work to produce coal for state institutions and public institutions. Mr. Hessler in his reply said he regretted to learn that operators continue to repudiate their contract to meet in a four-state conference and wondered why such a policy is still pursued. He stated that Secretary Penno, of the Indiana Coal Operators' Association, had repeatedly admitted that such a policy was a mistake.

"As a local citizen and loyal to the mine workers also, I decline to meet contract repudiators in state conference," he wired the governor. Mr. Hessler also stated that he would submit the governor's request to the Indiana district board on Monday. "I am still hopeful four-state meeting will be held soon," he concluded.

SUBMARINES ACCOUNTED FOR

LOS ANGELES, CAL., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—All 12 of the submarines en route from Los Angeles, to Hampton Roads, Virginia, under convoy of the tender Heaver, were said at the local submarine base to be accounted for this morning.

Two of the submarines are out of commission and are being towed, it was said, but no serious trouble is experienced.

Especially in this true in the automobile industry, which is in an unusually busy period, the report states. One large motor truck company reported an increase of forty per cent in production over the first quarter. Building continues at a rapid pace and farm implement lines are slowly recovering. Coal cargoes were very scarce, but the ore trade furnished employment for most of the lake vessels, while the grain trade took care of a fair amount of tonnage. The rubber industry holds to its heavy production schedule.

Paris European Reno For Americans Tired Of Matrimony

PARIS, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The increasing number of divorces obtained in Paris by prominent Americans and other foreigners seeking relief from matrimonial infelicity, has led to many inquiries as to why the French capital apparently has become such a European Reno for discontented spouses. The chief magnet appears to lie in the fact that divorce proceedings may be brought in French courts with silent ease and completed without even friends and acquaintances becoming aware, at least through the medium of French newspapers. Publication of such proceedings by native newspapers is a criminal offense, on the ground of lowering public morals.

Recent publicity in the United States of some divorces of Americans in Paris has caused an unpleasant feeling of apprehension among attorneys for others who have been contemplating divorce action.

There are three grounds for divorce in France: Adultery, conviction of a felony and cruelty. "The whole divorce situation in France from the American viewpoint is an abuse and a scandal," said Charles F. Beach, an American lawyer in Paris, today.

Mathilde Sails For Europe; Maid Her Only Companion

NEW YORK, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Mathilde McCormick, daughter of Harold F. McCormick, of Chicago, sailed on the Majestic today with a maid as her only companion. She declined to discuss her plans to marry Max Oser, Swiss riding academy master, to whom she announced her engagement last spring, or to say where she would visit in Europe, or how long she would remain.

Mathilde's brother Fowler, and sister Muriel, saw her aboard. Both were reticent, declaring they knew nothing about the plans of their 17-year-old sister. "She's running her own boat you know," said Fowler. Also on the Majestic, but in quarters some distance from Mathilde, was her uncle, Cyrus H. McCormick, chairman of the board of directors of the International Harvester Company. "I am not interested in the affairs of other people," he replied to questions concerning Mathilde. "I do not care what my brother's family does."

The chief said he believed he had the bandits surrounded.

News of Jova's escape reached here by messenger from the vicinity of the Mongolito Caves, south of this city, and near the point where his abandoned roadster was found yesterday. According to the messenger, Jova narrowly escaped death in eluding the bandits. The only weapons he could use against their bullets were stones.

Hot Fight In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Whether the Democratic party of Oklahoma would be split should Mayor J. C. Walton, of Oklahoma City, win the nomination for governor at Tuesday's primary continued today to be one of the paramount questions being debated in the state.

Mayor Walton's acceptance of the endorsement of the farmer-labor reconstruction league, which has a program patterned largely after that of the Non-partisan League of North Dakota, has brought down upon him the bitter opposition of a big section of the Democratic press of the state and that of followers of Walton's two opponents for the nomination, R. H. Wilson, state superintendent of public instructions, and Thomas H. Owen, former justice of the state supreme court.

None of the anti-Walton forces admits that the Oklahoma City mayor has a chance, but Walton makes broad claims to success.

Four Taken From Burning Mine

MURPHYSBORO, ILL., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Fire discovered in the mine of the Midway Coal Co., near Ward, 10 miles northeast of here, yesterday noon, imprisoning four men in the shaft for 12 hours, still was burning early today.

Three of the men trapped in the mine, Milo McGowan, general manager; William Forth, a pumpman, and Tom Kelly, a foreman, were rescued last night, while Harry Laughlin, an inspector of the mine, was taken unconscious from the shaft at midnight.

Frank Rosbottom, state mine inspector, said the fire was an outburst of smoldering flames sealed up last February.

Bitter Contest Closes

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—United States Senator James A. Reed and Bruckridge Long, third assistant secretary of state during the Wilson administration, tonight will close their campaigns for the Democratic senatorial nomination to be decided at the primary election next Tuesday. Veteran politicians agree their contest has been one of the bitterest waged in Missouri.

The Democratic contest has drawn so much attention during the last three months that little significance has been attached to the contest among the six Republican candidates.

Senator Reed's supporters are expecting many votes from the ranks of the ex-soldiers because of his fight for the national soldier bonus. Politicians predict Mr. Long will run ahead in the rural districts and St. Louis and Kansas City are regarded as strongholds of the senator.

Of the Republican candidates J. W. Harrott, attorney general, and R. R. Brewster, of Kansas City, are regarded by politicians to be strongest contenders. Republican politicians are inclined to admit that their party vote will not be relative to previous elections.

OHIO MINE UNION OFFICIALS GIVE THEIR CONSENT TO PLAN DEVELOPMENTS IN COAL SITUATION

District 19 members of the United Mine Workers sign separate agreement with operators in some Kentucky-Tennessee districts, where strike had not been effective. Operators say agreement was with individuals and not unions.

John L. Lewis, president of mine workers, reiterated his belief that miners and operators of the central competitive field would get together in conference within a few days.

Frank Farrington, head of Illinois miners, who joined the Lewis meeting at Philadelphia, said he had no information regarding proposed settlement. Springfield, Illinois, miners telegraphed Lewis asking him to close Illinois mines working under special permit from Farrington to supply coal to institutions and utilities.

Secretary Hoover announced ships would be furnished coal only to next port of call and foreign vessels after August 1, will be required to bunker abroad for round trip.

COLUMBUS, O., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Two Ohio mines, one operated by the Wilbren Coal Mining Company, near New Lexington, and the other by the Oliver Coal Company, at Hope station, near Jackson, are to resume operations at once to supply needs of Ohio institutions during the strike emergency.

This was announced today by State Director of Finance Davis following negotiations with mine owners and union officials. The plan assures the state ten cars of coal daily.

The Jackson county mine can furnish four cars of coal daily beginning Tuesday, while the Wilbren operations will be able to ship six cars per day beginning Wednesday, it was said.

Approval of the miners' union was given today by Secretary Savage, it was said, in the absence of President Hall.

Immediate needs of the institutions will be provided for by the output of the mines, state officials declared. Application has been made to State Fuel Administrator George T. Poor, for priority orders making it possible to rush the cars from the mines to the institutions as soon as they are loaded.

The Girls' Industrial School at Delaware and the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster are said to need coal worse than other institutions. They will be the first supplied.

Additional appointments to the state fuel administration announced today were George M. Crawford, Steubenville, and L. G. Macomber, traffic manager of the Toledo Chamber of Commerce. F. Q. Buer, traffic manager of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, and a committee representing the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, were placed on the commission last night.

Officers of assistance were received by Mr. Poor from the Lima Chamber of Commerce.

PEACE HOPES ARE BRIGHT IN RAIL STRIKE

RAIL SITUATION AT A GLANCE

Indications point to early settlement as rail strike enters fifth week. Preparation under way by 90 members of national executive board of shop crafts and 25 general chairmen of others to attend meeting in Chicago Tuesday to discuss Harding proposals.

B. M. Jewell, his executive council and Timothy Healy arrived in Chicago, following conferences with President Harding. Supervisors of mechanics petition President Harding to include them in peace plans.

Further violence reported from widely scattered points.

Outlook For Peace Good

CHICAGO, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—As the strike of 300,000 railway shopmen entered its fifth week today, the outlook for peace was regarded as bright and in rail circles here the belief was expressed that the walk-out would not last into its sixth week.

Meetings were set for Tuesday both by the rail chiefs and workers on strike at which time President Harding's plan for a settlement was expected to be acted upon. The conference of rail heads will be held in New York. Representatives of the strikers will meet in Chicago in answer to word sent out last night by B. M. Jewell, head of the shop workers' organization, to the ninety general chairmen comprising the national agreement executive board. At the same time notice was given to twenty-five general chairmen of the stationary firemen and others' union by Timothy Healy, head of the union, that a meeting would be held here Tuesday to discuss settlement of the strike of that organization.

Does Not Include Wage Question

The president's plans were not made public. However, it became known from authoritative sources that it embraced settlement of all the strikers' grievances except the wage question, which would be submitted to the railroad labor board for a rehearing.

Under the plan as outlined, the president's stand for recognition of the rights of men now at work would be carried out. Union shompen who did not strike would be placed at the head of the railroads seniority list, which means that they would be assured of permanent work, since in slack times the workers at the foot of the lists are the first to be laid off. Union shompen who went on strike would be placed next on the lists and after them would come the men hired by the roads since the strike began. No mention was made of the pension rights. If pension rights should not be restored workers who have been in the service of their respective employers for a number of years would forfeit the benefits allowed, which give workers the privileges of retiring after a certain number of years with a percentage of their pay.

Western roads have been insistent that the men now at work should be placed at the head of seniority lists. Also included in the president's plan, it is understood, was elimination of outside contract repair work by the railroads.

Regional Adjustment Boards Sought

Another demand of the strikers was included in the settlement program. This related to the setting up of a national and regional adjustment boards to expedite the adjustment of disputes between workers and employers.

USES KNIFE IN FIGHT

C. & O. Brakeman S. C. Mize of Kenova, who works on the Huntington division of the C. & O., received a pistol bullet in the lower part of the chest about midnight last night when an unidentified person fired at an automobile in which Mize was riding between Russell and Chinville. Mize is in the Marling hospital in Ironton and is getting along nicely.

The shooting of Mize caused a report in and about Russell and Ashland that a strikebreaker had been fired upon from ambush.

Mize, with two other C. & O. employees, had been attending the session of U. S. District Court at Marysville yesterday afternoon. They were on their way to Russell and were on the county road between Chinville and Russell when the machine passed two boys on the side of the road.

As the machine passed one of the lads fired and it is thought that he probably made a target of the machine, but aimed too high. Mize was treated by a physician at Russell, who found a 22 calibre bullet had entered the man's chest. Later he was taken to Ironton.

Congestion Delays Coal Exports To America

LONDON, July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Congestion in British ports is beginning to threaten interference with the export of coal to America, which has taken such a boom since the beginning of the strike of the American coal miners. This is particularly true of Wales and Northumberland.

One result of this congestion has been curtailment in freight rates which in some cases dropped from sixteen and seventeen shillings to 12 shillings six pence per ton between Thursday and Friday. Another result is the apparent tendency on the part of American buyers to withhold further orders pending developments in America.

Proposes Probe Of Charges That Senators Interested Financially In Tariff Rates

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Investigation of charges that certain senators are interested financially in the rates of duties proposed in particular schedules of the pending tariff bill was proposed in a resolution introduced today by Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas.

The inquiry would be conducted by the judiciary committee, which would be instructed to report to the senate within ten days. "Also the committee would inquire into charges that senators in the language of the resolution, 'are or were financially interested in the passage or extension of the so-called emergency tariff.'"

Senator Caraway read from an editorial in the New York Herald charging that certain senators were interested in the production of wool and was interrupted successively by all of the senators mentioned in the editorial with a resulting running cross fire of debate which waxed warm at times.

Senator Gooding of Idaho, chairman of the Republican agricultural tariff bloc, said Senator Caraway had voted for a duty on rice and that his interest in rice should be investigated. Denying that he or any of his relatives had any financial interest in the production of rice, Senator Caraway said he would say to anybody who so charged that he was an "unqualified liar."

Senator Caraway asked for immediate consideration of the resolution but Senator Wadsworth, Republican, New York, objected and the measure went over under the rules.

Shouting that he would insist that the investigation "proposed from the other side for political purposes" should proceed, Senator Gooding during his discussion declared that if he had violated any law he was ready to resign.

Wage Increase

Central railway and near Nashville and they employ 5,000 men, members of District 19, who remained at work during the strike by agreement.

Miners and operators in the Kentucky district around Middlesboro will meet Tuesday with the expectation of signing a similar agreement. In the chief producing districts, the central competitive field, there was no immediate sign of agreement, although union leaders insisted that plans were going forward for a general conference toward reaching the only kind of an agreement the miners will accept—one covering the whole field.

Federal and state officials continued preparations for distribution of coal under government supervision. Appointment by President Harding of Henry B. Spencer as federal coal administrator and the appointment of an advisory committee of operators were taken by coal men to mean that the federal government would not halt its plan to control distributing of foodstuffs and fuel; despite the fact that the outlook for peace was considerably brighter.

Officials at Washington have indicated that states which have large coal deposits will be expected to exhaust all efforts to dig their own coal before aid can be expected from the federal government.

The administration believes there will be a settlement of the strike and that the country's fuel needs will be supplied.

No special efforts are being made to supply any particular section, according to officials, who declare that the federal government's task is to see that the nation as a whole does not suffer from lack of fuel.

Mining of coal has been resumed in mines of Washington county, Pennsylvania, and in Indiana. Governor McCray asked that a sufficient number of men be permitted to return to work to provide coal for state institutions and public utilities.

Attacks Plan For Settling Rail Strike

CINCINNATI, O., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The proposed plan for settlement of the nationwide railroad strike was attacked today by H. A. Worcester, vice president of the Big Four railroad system, who declared that if the striking shopmen were granted seniority it would mean that the railway executives had "lied" to the new men when they were engaged to fill the places of the striking shopmen.

Mr. Worcester declared that "to grant seniority to the striking shopmen who left their jobs July 1, means that the new men who have been engaged to take their places and have been promised permanent jobs, will have to be turned out."

"If these men, some of whom left other positions attracted by railroad wages which are higher than those of similar industries, and who worked under great hardships and long hours to maintain transportation," Mr. Worcester's statement said, "were discharged by the railway officials these men would say that the railway executives lied to them when they were engaged."

"A Republican First"

CINCINNATI, O., July 29.—R. K. Hynicka, in a statement here today, declared that he is "a Republican first" and that the "wet" and "dry" issue is secondary to his political issue. The statement of Hynicka was made in connection with the attitude of Albert Bode, fourteenth ward committeeman, who declares he will support Harvey C. Smith for governor in the Republican nomination for governor in spite of the Republican central committee's endorsement of Carmi A. Thompson for governor yesterday. Bode gave as a reason for his opposition to Thompson that the Cleveland man was a "dry."

Attacks Plan For Settling Rail Strike

CINCINNATI, O., July 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The proposed plan for settlement of the nationwide railroad strike was attacked today by H. A. Worcester, vice president of the Big Four railroad system, who declared that if the striking shopmen were granted seniority it would mean that the railway executives had "lied" to the new men when they were engaged to fill the places of the striking shopmen.

Mr. Worcester declared that "to grant seniority to the striking shopmen who left their jobs July 1, means that the new men who have been engaged to take their places and have been promised permanent jobs, will have to be turned out."

"If these men, some of whom left other positions attracted by railroad wages which are higher than those of similar industries, and who worked under great hardships and long hours to maintain transportation," Mr. Worcester's statement said, "were discharged by the railway officials these men would say that the railway executives lied to them when they were engaged."

Marking A-P Highway

Marking off the posts along the Atlantic & Pacific Highway, workmen reached Portsmouth a day or two ago and are busy around town painting the mark of the road on telephone poles.

The poles are marked with three stripes, yellow, black and yellow. Along the country roads, these poles are marked about every 15 telephone poles. In the cities, the workers aim to mark one in every block along the way, and also the corners for a turn. These guide marks enable motorists to traverse the continent without reference to chart or map.

Four Killed In Plane Crash
BERLIN—The pilot and three passengers, the latter believed to be Americans, were killed in the crash of a German postal airplane at Bouth, Mecklenburg-Schwerin.

"Limestone, phosphate and manure—ever grass, and grain assure." This is an old saying, says W. F. Gahm, county agricultural agent, applies to no other Ohio county more appropriately than to Scioto. "The four and a quarter tons of clover to the acre which Mr. Miller has grown this year," he adds, "ought to serve as a standing lesson in constructive fertility-building to this part of Ohio."

In the field on which Mr. Miller has made his record are 13½ acres, farmed under rotation of two years of corn and then a year each of wheat and clover. To each acre of this field in 1919 he applied 10 tons of stable manure and 400 pounds of bone meal, a phosphate fertilizer. The field was in corn that year and yielded 50 bushels to the acre.

In 1920 with the field again in corn, he applied a ton of limestone and in addition repeated the application of 10 tons of manure and 400 pounds of phosphate to each acre. This year he got 70 bushels of corn to the acre.

With the field in wheat in 1921, 10 tons of manure to the acre were again added, and the field also was given 300 pounds of bone meal. The wheat thus grown was used as a nurse crop for the 4½ ton clover crop, just harvested.

Chuck McDaniel Joins Bristol Team

Chuck McDaniel, star catcher for the Vulcan Last team left Thursday night for Bristol, Tenn., where he will join the Bristol Appalachian League team.

McDaniel, while regretting to leave Portsmouth, was made such a tempting offer by the Bristol team that he felt he could not turn it down.

He was hitting around the .425 mark in the Industrial League here and his throwing is in a class by itself.

McDaniel's many friends here predict for him a bright future in the great national game.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT RESULTS

The results of the city-wide tennis tournament games yesterday showed some surprises, and big ones. But the chief upsetting of the done bucket was done by Ted Hopkins and Howie Flowers, when they defeated Griffin and Hyland 6-4, 6-4. Griffin and Hyland are looked upon by many as the probable winners of the tournament, and this little surprise doesn't mean they're out of it—not by a long shot.

The two teams will meet again in the finals, both with clean slates, in all probability.

Results of Yesterday's Play

Group A
Glockner and Glockner met their first defeat when they bumped into Robinson and Blood, who won 6-4, 4-6, at York park.

Vandervort and H. Monroe won from Stanley and Geiler on the Trinity courts, 6-4, 6-1.

Wylie Young and W. Baugher won their opener from Oakes and Gulker 6-2, 6-3, at Mound park.

Group B
Hopkins and Flowers won from

Staten and Millard, at the Golf Club 6-4, 6-4.
Breece and Williams won from Staten and Millard, at the Golf Club, 7-5, 6-3.

Group C
Pride and Storek won from Davidson and Anderson at Mound park, 6-2, 6-2.

Hurth and Peterson ran away with Sommers and La Bedz, 6-0, 6-1.
Flowers and Lykins won from O'Brien and Lavitch on the York park courts, also 6-0, 6-1.

Boy Scouts
Irving Bassler and John Smith, of Troop 1, again threw a fit into the Boy Scout league by eliminating Gose and Blair of Troop 2, in two mighty hot sets, 7-5, 7-5.

This puts them into the semi-finals and they will play T. J. Coe and Arthur Spencer, of Troop 15, Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. on the York park courts. If they win from them they will play the finals with whatever other team survives the rest of the tournament.

Automobile And Horse In Collision

Jack Rhoades, an Adams county farmer, suffered severe injuries late Friday night when the horse he was riding was struck by a speeding auto on the state highway, near Jackson, three miles south of Peebles. The automobile, said to have been driven by Homer Crawford of Jackson, and the horseman were traveling in opposite directions and met on a sharp curve in the road.

The machine crashed against the horse, knocking the steed off its feet and in the resultant fall the rider sustained serious injuries which may prove fatal as it is feared that he was hurt internally. His condition Saturday was reported as being extremely critical.

The horse, which with the rider, was dragged along the roadway for a distance of 27 feet before the machine was brought to a stop, was crippled and was later destroyed. According to the story of the auto driver and his companion the accident was caused by the horse and rider traveling on the wrong side of the road. The autoist escaped injury but their machine was considerably damaged.

Quadruples Average Clover Yield

Four and a quarter tons of clover to the acre on the farm of James R. Miller, Wheelersburg, demonstrates what Scioto County farms can do when livestock is kept, when manure is applied to the land, and when limestone and phosphate fertilizer are used. A ton to the acre of clover is generally considered a fair yield.

"Limestone, phosphate and manure—ever grass, and grain assure." This is an old saying, says W. F. Gahm, county agricultural agent, applies to no other Ohio county more appropriately than to Scioto. "The four and a quarter tons of clover to the acre which Mr. Miller has grown this year," he adds, "ought to serve as a standing lesson in constructive fertility-building to this part of Ohio."

JUDGE ROBINS FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The Scioto Gazette of Chillicothe endorses the candidacy of Judge Huston T. Robins, of Chillicothe for Lieutenant Governor editorially as follows:

"Judge Robins has lived all his life in Ross county and has made a record worthy of the best type of American citizenship. He possesses a fine mind and strong character, has a good education and wide experience. His record as probate judge and as a member of the Ohio General Assembly is above reproach; he is clean, honest and kind. We heartily commend him to the Republicans of Ohio."

Judge Robins' candidacy is also endorsed by the Ross County Republican Executive and Central committees.—Political Advertisement.

stay on the campus as honored guests of that institution, are among the prizes for which 55 farm youngsters of Scioto county will compete at their county fair, August 8-11.

During the past year, these farm boys and girls have been working 14 achievement clubs, scattered all over the county. Forty boys have been raising purebred pigs, 35 girls have been learning how to make bread and to put up things by the most modern methods of canning and 20 boys and girls have been handling poultry flocks.

Pig club and food club work was carried on in the county last year, but the poultry club work is new. Consequently those who visit the boys' and girls' club exhibit building at this year's fair will find that a poultry exhibit, an added feature.

To prizes valued at $500, which were offered the youngsters last year the fair board has added $100. A special premium list for members of the boys and girls' clubs, just issued, is as follows:

Breeding class for pigs: Animals to be judged both for show points and utility: First prize, trip to Ohio State University; second prize, same; third prize, $5; fourth prize, $7, and so on each successive place decreasing the prize one dollar, down to ninth prize, $2. Every boy who exhibits a pig and does not place in the first nine will be given a dollar and a year's subscription to any swine-breeding journal he elects to take.

Fewer boys are expected to show in a second pig class, provided especially for those who want their pigs judged on market or utility basis. Therefore only the winner of first place in this class will get a trip to the University. The second prize is $6, and six awards are offered beyond the sixth place, for which the prize is $2. All exhibitors who do not finish in the first six, however, will get a dollar and a subscription to a breed journal, as in the case of the breeding exhibitors.

Exhibits of bread and canned stuff will also be divided into two classes, one for those who are in their first year of such work and one for older girls in their second, third or fourth year of club work. The first two in each of the two classes will win trips to the University; third prize in each class is $6 worth of kitchenware, and so on down to seventh prize, $2 worth of kitchenware. Non-winning exhibitors will get a dollar's worth of kitchenware and a year's magazine subscription.

The new class that has been arranged for exhibits of the three new poultry clubs provides as first a trip to Club Week; as second $8 in cash, and so on throughout, on the same scale as is provided for the exhibitors of breeding pigs.

Trophy cups awarded last year to the Mound Pig Club and to the Willing Workers Food Club of Min-ford, on a challenge basis will be awarded to the clubs that during the present year are judged to have done the best work in the County. These cups are awarded on the basis of 100 points, in which the highest average score of individual members counts 40; highest per centage of members finishing their projects counts 35; highest percentage attendance at club meetings counts 20; and the size of the club enrollment counts 5.

California's Tragedies

Enough good printers' ink and newspaper space has been wasted on the Hollywood tragedies of Arbuckle and Taylor to put across a national advertising campaign for something useful and beneficial to the people as a nation.

There is satisfaction in knowing, however, that they are quite far away and we do not get the full effect. We are in about the same position in respect to the California tragedies as the catalog house to its customers. One catalog house man said he did not care how much his customers kicked on the quality or fitting of the shoes he sold them as long as they were far enough away that he didn't get the full force, and he only expected to sell a customer one pair anyhow.

I would like to sell you one pair but with the idea that they are going to fit, please and wear so well that they will bring you back again, and believe me if you men want a quiet tip get your feet into that better kind of palm beach oxfords for these hot days,—comfort and service in every pair. A trial proves the worth.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Dolly Wise—I am a St. Paul girl, sixteen years old. I am corresponding with a boy, nineteen years old and keeping company with a boy in our neighborhood. Am I doing right? Please give me your advice about it. Are Oxford going to be worn this winter?

SWEET SIXTEEN.
Surely you are doing right. I think that it would be a good idea to buy three or four pairs of Oxfords, because I have it from a reliable source that this is going to be a "terrible" winter. But you'll be safe in buying the same number of Oxfords.

Dear Miss Wise—I am engaged to a girl who always is asking me to cease writing to a former sweetheart. Now she says that she knows there are letters of friendship only and that she trusts me, as I show her the letters that are written to me by this girl. Still she insists that I discontinue writing her. Now, do you think she is showing mistrust in me by insisting I discontinue writing when we do not keep up a steady correspondence? As my wife-to-be would she be within her rights to make such a request?

CURIOUS.
When a couple are engaged they should be very careful not to give the least occasion for jealousy or lack of confidence. If your fiancée were to write to an old beau of hers, would you feel about it as you wish her to feel? A good beginning is half the battle and the writer does not think you are entirely in the right in keeping up the correspondence with this girl after you have notified her of your engagement.

Dear Dolly—I am coming to you for advice. I am a girl 22 years of age. I have been keeping company with a fellow for quite a while. We were engaged to be married, and he just turned me down at the last minute. Now Dolly I love this fellow so well that I know I can never forget him. So Dolly don't you think that it would be better to go away some place where I won't see him anymore? Please tell me. My home is here.

HEART-BROKEN.
To be perfectly frank, my dear, you should be considering yourself a most fortunate girl, instead of a heart-broken one. Aren't you ashamed to say that you still love a being like that? He is not even a man, you know that. I can readily believe that it is hard to accept the situation, but I would face it bravely and show people that you are thankful that you found him out before it was too late.

Dear Miss Wise—I am in love with a girl who is now 20 and I am almost 18. She says she cares for me and I know I care for her. I have told my mother, but she only argues and says I should wait until I get older. The girl knows how old I am and she often tells me about it. I have a good job that will pay me wages enough later on to support two. The girl said she would work to help along. I love this girl and I told my mother if she would not let me I would do so anyway. Do you think this wrong? My mother has met the girl and likes her.

T. B.
There is nothing wrong in your wanting to get married. Do you think, however, that it is mainly in you to look forward to your wife working to help support herself and upkeep of home? This practice is destroying home life in this country. Some employers will not permit a woman to work after she is married, and it is a good rule. Follow your mother's advice and wait until you are 25.

Dear Dolly—I hope to win a young widow whose husband died in December. How long should I wait before making my intentions known? I am afraid some one else will get her if I wait too long, for she is very accomplished and a peach of a blonde. But I don't want to show lack of respect to her late husband by ignoring her period of mourning. She has been a college teacher, while I have only a High School education and she has a much better financial inheritance as she is an only child. Otherwise we have much in common. Am I presumptuous in trying to win her?

AMBITIOUS RACHELOR.
I think that it would be perfectly all right for you to show her a little attention, at least. Of course, you must be nothing more to her than just a friend, because now is the time when she needs your friendship. You must remember, though, that people will talk if you pay her too much attention.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a bride of two months and my husband has changed. He will go a whole day without speaking to me, and has never taken me to a show since we were married. Before marriage he was so wonderful to me—always taking me out—that now I am heart-broken and ashamed to tell my friends about him. I love him dearly. What shall I do?

LUXESOME BRIDE.
There must be a reason for the change in his attitude in so short a time. Many a man, through ignorance, labor under a mistaken idea. If he would be fair enough with you to tell what the trouble is it would not be cleared up to his entire satisfaction. It may be well to call to your attention the necessity of a woman assuming her full share of the responsibility of married life in order to maintain her happiness in her home. You are within your rights to demand an explanation from your husband.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

ONE day Dr. Snuffles' telephone rang.
Nancy answered it. It was Cutie Cottontail talking.
"Say," said Cutie, "I'm in a fix. Ma's gone out and I'm alone. A while ago I peeked out and there was Fleet Fox watching for me."
"I can't go out and ma can't come in, for I heard Fleet call up to Mr. Craw he'd get one or both of us if he had to camp on our door-step till next winter."

"All right, Cutie," said Nick Nancy. "I'll tell Dr. Snuffles and Nick and we'll help you. Don't worry. Just keep still and don't poke your little pink nose out until we tell you."
Nancy and Nick and Dr. Snuffles talked it over and finally Dr. Snuffles said:
"I've got a plan. Fleet is the most curious person I ever knew, as well as the broadest. So we'll fool him, Nick, go out and gather some sleepy-berries."

Sure enough there sat Fleet, never taking his eyes off Cutie's front door.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

What horrible and mysterious power was forcing the three Drake brothers.

HOBART, Wall Street broker, ROGER, eminent scientist, and ANDREW, recently returned from Australia, to place themselves in ridiculous situations? Some power had forced Hobart to deliver a "mock address in the public square."

Roger to burlesque a scientific address and Andrew to sit on the parlor floor and play with dogs. The three appear terror-stricken and without their knowledge.

PATRICIA DRAKE, daughter of Hobart, secures OWEN MILES, detective sergeant, and his colleague, SCOTTIE MCLEADY, to investigate. Miles is employed as a houseman and Scottie as gardener. Following a series of mysterious events, Patricia suddenly disappears—an event which Miles cannot understand as he and Patricia were in each other's confidence. Possibly the attempt of her stepfather.

MISS JERUSA DRAKE, to break up a love affair with RICHARD KEMP, has been the cause. Miles is suddenly summoned by Hobart Drake.

"Marks, take Gray into the drawing room," Miles ordered. "Farrell, roll up the right sleeve of a man who calls himself Andrew Drake and take off the bandage."
A gasping cry came from Jerusa but Miss Hawks moaned:
"That was what deceived me so thoroughly when he was putting on his coat out in the garden the first day I called!"

The pseudo-Andrew set his teeth but he made no show of resistance when the bandage was removed and on the still inflamed surface of his arm appeared the blurred, intertwined letters "H" and "O."

"You thought they were your own initials, did you not, Miss Hawks?" Miles asked gently. "Forgive me for repeating an old wound, but I had such a feeling for a time, blinded you to certain inconsistencies which the Drake family themselves had failed to note?"

She nodded dumbly in an obvious effort to control her emotions and the detective went on:
"In reality the initials are his own, as far as the police records of Australia show. His name is Hugh Osborne and he, too, is badly wanted but not for the same crime as his present accomplice. Will you tell Mr. Wells and your old friends here when the first doubt of his identity entered your mind?"

"I called her yesterday, but as I grew reminiscent and he betrayed an utter ignorance of the incidents I mentioned, a wild suspicion came into my mind. I spoke of my initials on his arm and though he swore that he had had them tattooed there in remembrance of me I was still unconvinced. I felt that I must be going mad and yet I had to make sure. I laid a deliberate trap for him and he fell into it."

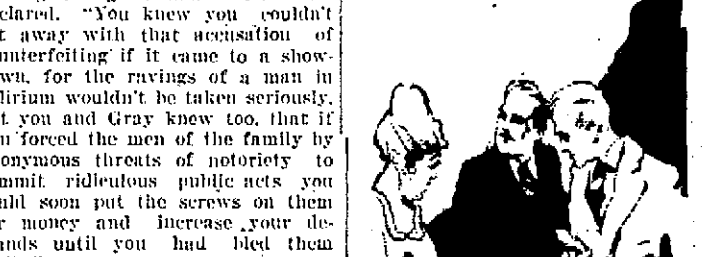

Miss Hawks rose. "Now may I go? I came as I promised, but I—I can endure no more. Jerusa, forgive me, but surely it is better that you know the truth?"
"The truth is always best, Ora," Miss Drake rose and a stern, Spartan gravity had robbed her soft features of all other emotion. "Tonight I shall see the end of more than one living lie."

John Wells escorted the trembling woman to her waiting car and scarcely had the attorney reappeared when the impostor broke out with an oath.

"ICED" "SALADA" TEA

is so good as a refreshing summer drink. "You Really Must Try It".

bered how much I looked like Andy and Gray and I—well, we saw there was a good thing in it."
"So Gray came on here ahead and for a year moved the way by getting in with Mr. Roger Drake and then you appeared as Andrew and a few weeks ago you began to work secretly with your accomplice to terrorize the family while yourself pretending to be a victim as well!" Miles declared. "You knew you couldn't get away with that accusation of counterfeiting if it came to a show-down, for the ravings of a man in delirium wouldn't be taken seriously, but you and Gray knew too, that if you forced the men of the family by anonymous threats of notoriety to commit ridiculous public acts you could soon put the screws on them for money and increase your demands until you had bled them white."

A GASPING CRY CAME FROM JERUSA.

"I happened to be in the hall when she ran out of the house like a mad woman after a tete-a-tete with Andrew and the next minute he upset the table and scalded his arm. It wasn't a bad burn and it occurred to me that it was just an excuse for a lullaby."

"I think it was Andrew himself," Miles responded. "It struck me as odd in my first talk with Wells and little Miss Patricia that Hobart and Roger should both have made public exhibitions of themselves, but Andrew's fit of supposed insanity took place safe at home, for the benefit of one of the servants alone."

"When I had made up my mind that insanity played no part in the strange events the only alternative to consider was blackmail, and it must have been for some inducement or even crime committed in the far past. Tight then the solution was in my grasp for you had learned that in their youth Roger had been interested in chemistry, dyeing and in photography, that Hobart was a pen-and-ink artist and Andrew had worked for a time in a pulp manufacturing plant. The old chest of mental junk which we carted away from under the floor of the summer house and destroyed the morning after we wound up the case, Scottie did not contain the remains of a printing press as you surmised, but the relic of a machine for making a replica of the silk threaded paper the government uses for genuine greenbacks and had been an original invention of the real Andrew."

"It didn't come to me even then that the truth was staring me in the face until you brought me that twenty-dollar bill Rip got snatched over and I found it was counterfeit. It was scorching at one end, and knowing that Rip must have found it somewhere I concluded that it had been on the dust-heap where Miss Drake must have thrown it among the ashes which she cleaned out of the drawing-room fireplace after I had seen her burning something there at midnight."

"I recalled her words: 'Ashes, every one. If only the first had never been conceived this horror would not have descended upon us. She had known from the start what her brothers were doing. None of her brothers knew until just before the explosion came that she had been wise all the time, they thought she believed that mythical tale of an inheritance and I could kick myself for accepting it without verification, but Wells had taken it for granted and so did I.'"

"It's no worse than me!" Scottie remarked consolingly. "Why didn't I see that tattoo mark on Andrew's arm when he took off his coat there in the garden just before Miss Hawks appeared? To be sure, my back was to him but I was there to keep my eyes on him and everybody. —How did you first guess that the Hawks woman knew Andrew for an impostor?"

"They only knew it was hidden somewhere for the real Andrew must have talked a bit more in his lying ravings than Osborne told and I fancy they hoped to find the whole paraphernalia so that they could make some more of the queer and shove it themselves."

DOCTOR ORDERED WOMAN OBEYED

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and is Now Well

Chicago, Illinois.—"You surely gave women one good medicine when you put Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on the market. After I had my baby I was all run down and so nervous it kept me from gaining. My doctor did everything he could to build me up, then he ordered me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with his medicine and I am now a healthy mother of three children and they are all Lydia E. Pinkham babies. I have recommended your medicine to several friends and they speak highly of it. You are certainly doing good work in this world."

—Mrs. ADRIAN TOMSHECK, 15567 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

There is nothing very strange about the doctor directing Mrs. Tomsheck to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There are many physicians who do recommend it and highly appreciate its value.

Women who are nervous, run down, new mothers, suffering from women's ailments should give this well-known root and herb medicine a trial. Mrs. Tomsheck's experience should guide you towards health.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES

BY ELTON

IT WAS VERY FORTUNATE THAT FLIP WAS A VERY FAST SWIMMER. THE EAGLE, THAT WAS CARRYING JACK, PLUNGED LIKE THE WIND. FLIP MANAGED TO JUST KEEP UP WITH HIM.

THE CHASE LASTED FOR CLOSE TO AN HOUR. THEN, AS THE SUN SETLED DOWN BACK OF THE HILLSIDE, THE EAGLE TURNED TO WING THE TOP OF A HIGH CLIFF. FLIP HOPED THE BIRD WOULD LAND SHORTLY.

THEN FLIP STOPPED. THE HUGE EAGLE CIRCLED AROUND A FEW TIMES AND SUDDENLY PULLED IN ITS WINGS AND FLEW DOWN TO THE TOP OF A ROCKY CLIFF. JACK WAS OUT OF FLIP'S SIGHT.

THIS ONLY SPURRED THE PATRUL BOAT ON. HE SET OUT AIDED TO CLIMB THE HILLSIDE AND REACH THE FOOT WHERE THE EAGLE HAD STOPPED. THAT WAS A THRILLING ADVENTURE IN THE NEXT CHAPTER.

THE MARKETS
NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK, July 29.—Further covering of short contracts, attributed to favorable overnight developments in the strike situation, was noted at the opening of today's stock market, gains ranging from liberal fractions to almost two points in the early dealings. Bulls dominated the advance under the leadership of Union Pacific, which rose 1 1/2 points. Crucible led the steels at a gain of one point. Studebaker opened strong, but soon cancelled most of its gain. Minor recessions were made by Baltimore and Ohio, Cuba Cane and American Car. A further collapse in German marks to 15 1/2 a hundred the lowest price yet recorded, indicated the increased concern felt here regarding financial conditions in Germany.
Mixed conditions ruled in today's stock market, pending prices were mainly under the impetus of a renewed demand for rails and some of the favorite industrials, where gains ran from 1 to 2 1/2 points. Oils, especially Mexican Petroleum, also were strong with the resumption of the recent buying of high class equipments. Tobacco, chemicals, and rubbers moved to higher ground, oilfords reacting sharply from its early rise of almost two points. Atlantic Gulf also showed recurrent selling pressure. The closing was firm. Sales approximated 300,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS
CHICAGO, July 29.—Belief that the end of the railroad strike was in sight, following an announcement from Washington last night that President Harding's proposals to end the walk-out would be considered at a meeting of the craft chairman in Chicago next Tuesday, did much to strengthen the market during the early dealings today. The opening, which varied from 1/2 to 1 1/2 lower, with September 1.07 1/2 to 1.08 and December 1.10 to 1.10 1/2, was followed by a slight general advance all around, then somewhat of a reaction. The close showed a net decline of 1/2 to 1 1/2 with September 1.07 1/2 to 1.08 and December 1.10 to 1.10 1/2.
Corn and oats were in sympathy with wheat. After starting, slide to 1 1/2 to 1 1/2 lower, September 62 1/2 to 63 1/2, the corn market hardened and scored slight gains all around. Oats opened unchanged to 1/2 off, with September 34 1/2 to 34 1/2, and held near to the initial range.
Higher quotations for hogs served to lift provisions.
The close showed a decline of 1/2 to 1 1/2 with September 1.07 1/2 to 1.08 and December 1.10 to 1.10 1/2.

CIVIL SERVICE LAW VIOLATED SAYS
D. W. WILLIAMS DURING HIS VISIT HERE

Portsmouth was host yesterday evening to another of the Republican candidates for governor, Daniel Webster Williams, of Jackson, who is probably better known in this county than any of the candidates who have been here. Mr. Williams, publisher of the Jackson-Standard Journal, was kept busy during the late afternoon and evening renewing acquaintances and meeting his many friends. He received many of them at the Washington hotel and later at the Republican Club in the Masonic Temple.

Senator Williams, as he is known here, was for two terms the representative of this Senatorial District in the state senate. All his life he has lived in this part of Ohio, being born and raised in Jackson county, and teaching school as a young man in Scioto county.

Mr. Williams' first school was in Minford and he later taught in Bloom township. His first certificate as a teacher was granted him by the late Judge Noah Dyer.

Recalling this incident last night, Mr. Williams said:

"It was years ago. I was to teach in Minford and I came down here on Christmas day. Judge Dyer, knowing that I wanted to get back home that day, issued me an 18 months license."

Speaking upon the issues of the campaign, Mr. Williams said last night:

"State employees have openly violated the civil service laws by participating in the present political campaign. Dry detectives are working in behalf of Carol A. Thompson, another candidate for the nomination, Williams charged and numerous others are active in behalf of candidates."

"Depend upon it," Mr. Williams declared, "if I am elected Governor one of my first acts will be to discharge every civil service employee great or small, who is at present violating even the spirit of the civil service laws by participating in this campaign. There is a widespread participation of which I am taking careful note."

Present office holders who are candidates for others should resign their present offices, Williams said if they are "to act honorably to the people."

"If I am elected governor," Mr. Williams further said, "I propose to see to it that members of commissions and boards who violate the spirit of the civil service law by campaigning for political office shall be removed."

"It is unjust," he added, "for minor officers, mere appointees, to be subjected to dismissal, while heads of departments go about campaigning."

"I am in favor of an amendment to the Civil Service law insisting that no man be permitted to run for an office until he has resigned the office he holds at the time of his candidacy."

"What do you think of the reorganization bill?" he was asked.

"It is alright as far as it goes," he replied, "but I believe that still more useless expense can be cut from the state payroll."

Mr. Williams left early this morning for Chillicothe and Washington Court House. He was to speak at the latter place this afternoon.

He stated last night that he had visited more Republicans personally than any other candidate and that he felt assured of the nomination.

His son, Ben Ames Williams, the noted writer of fiction, is managing his campaign.

He has been state senator and consul to Cardiff, Wales.

Court House

Commissioners Grant Petition
County Commissioners in session Friday granted the prayer of the petition of Ed Bailey and others for a change in location of the Upper Twin Creek road and fixed August 21 as the time for the hearing of claims for compensation and damages by reason of the proposed improvement.

Suit On Account

Suit to recover on a claim for $150.55 alleged to be due on an account for merchandise sold and delivered to the defendant, was filed by Mary E. Stix, Cincinnati merchant, in Common Pleas court Saturday against Joe D. Mark, farmer living near Wheelersburg. The plaintiff sued through Attorney Sherrard M. Johnson.

Special Officers Appointed

The commissions of sixteen special officers with police powers appointed by Governor Harry L. Davis for the Norfolk & Western Railway Company, were filed in the office of the clerk of courts Saturday for record.

The officers were appointed at the instance of N. & W. officials and are being used to guard railroad property on account of the rail strike. The names of the special police include Everett Stodgel, Jeff Pigg, Clare Dunham, William Wallace, Pete Andre, John Lewis, Oscar Oger, John Newman, W. H. Davis, Lavin Frazier, Joseph Southworth, Matt Colegrove, Hutton Ferguson, Elmer Farmer, Lewis Robertson and J. H. McCoy.

The commissions are all for a term of three years.

Chaffin Granted Divorce

Thad Chaffin, carpenter, 1011 Eleventh street, was granted a divorce by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Saturday, divorcing him from Cynthia Chaffin, whom he married in July 1913.

The suit was filed by the wife last February, but it was claimed that she left town shortly afterwards with another man and the case was heard on the defendant's answer and cross petition in which he charged cruelty.

On the stand in his behalf Chaffin told the court that the wife was insanely jealous of him without cause and he declared that when it came to quarreling she was a champion, citing one instance when she "chewed the rag" continuously for 12 hours. The plaintiff is said to be now living in Pennsylvania. Attorney J. T. Micklethwait appeared for Chaffin.

In passing on the case the court stated he was of the opinion Chaffin should be allowed to "resign."

Assigned for Trial

A number of divorce and alimony cases have been assigned for hearing to Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court next week. Among the causes set for trial are: Tuesday, Aug. 1—Goldie Davis vs. Ernest Davis; Jas. Warnock vs. Grace Warnock; and Junius Stammer vs. Harman Stammer.

Wednesday, Aug. 2—Margaret Hanson vs. Charles Hanson.

Thursday, Aug. 3—Dula Musser vs. Marion Musser and Mattie Dawson vs. Charles Dawson.

Restraining Order Dismissed
Judge Thomas approved an entry Saturday dissolving the temporary injunction in the divorce and alimony suit of Jessie Whitman against Holly Whitman after the parties through their counsel agreed upon all matters in issue on the application of the defendant to modify the restraining order which tied up his money in bank and prevented him from disposing of his restaurant at 718 Chillicothe street.

Through the compromise effected Whitman paid the plaintiff the sum of $300 in full settlement of her property rights and alimony. Attorney W. L. Dickey for the wife and Attorney H. L. Small for Whitman.

John G. Fritz and J. A. Rogers are John G. Fritz and J. A. Rogers are made defendants in a suit filed in common pleas court Friday by Attorneys Miller and Seal for the W. P. Raleigh Co., of Freeport, Ill. In the petition the plaintiff asks for $2,072.00 which, it is claimed, is due the Raleigh Co. on an account of J. D. Browns, for which the defendants are alleged in the petition to have been security.

Marriage Licenses
Jesse Weeks, 21, steelworker, Harrisonville and Hazel Hall, 18, housekeeper, New Boston. Rev. Payton Jones.

James Walter Sheets, 22, mason, Sciotoville, and Mary Alice James, 18, shoemaker, Lucasville. Rev. John Kemper.

BUSY SESSION HELD BY SCHOOL BOARD

Plans for a part time vocational school were discussed, it was decided to abandon the Star Yards school, several new teachers were appointed, and the decision to not make any change in textbooks this year was the main business transacted at last night's session of the Board of Education when considerable business came before the board.

High School Will Not Be Ready
Architect Preitzinger, of Dayton, met with the board and gave the members an outline of how the work on the two new building additions was progressing.

He stated that the Lincoln addition will be completed and ready for use by the time school begins in September, but that the high school will not be completed by that time.

He said that the work on the high school was coming along all right, but was somewhat slower than he expected.

The matter of installing new clocks, bells and telephones in the addition to the high school and repairing the systems now in the old building was taken up, and the Standard Electric Time Company was awarded the contract on their bids of $1390 for the clocks, $1140 for the phones and bells and $900 for all necessary wiring. The architect was ordered to draw up the contracts, amounting to a total of $3,430.

He was also asked to investigate the cost of installing ash hoist at the Lincoln building. This he promised to do, and will be present with his findings at the next meeting of the board, August 11.

The Sciotoville M. E. church was awarded the use of the Sciotoville high school auditorium on the night of August 1, and Portsmouth auditorium on the following evening for the presentation of the "Kitchen Cabinet" orchestra, by the D. A. R. of Jackson, being charged $20 for the use of the buildings.

The Transportation Problem
A communication from City Solicitor Sherrard Johnson was read, giving the opinion that the board is not compelled to pay transportation of high school pupils who live more than four miles from the school. This applied to several cases where parents had filed transportation bills with the board, and the superintendent was ordered to notify the parents of the solicitor's finding.

Prof. Appel offered the state report on crippled children showing 22 in the county, and this will be checked with the enumerators' report before the fall term begins.

Moore To Handle Books
It was voted to allow H. C. Moore to continue as the Sciotoville agent for school books, providing that he makes a settlement in full for the 1921-22 school year before August 11, and makes a monthly settlement in the future.

The Part Time School

The part time vocational school as outlined by Superintendent Appel follows: Boys and girls over sixteen years of age and past the sixth grade who wish to quit school may do so, by attending school four hours a day and working the remainder, the studies to be along the line of work they are doing. If such a school is established the Board of Education may make attendance compulsory by those who are eligible. Pupils attend until the age of 18.

The teacher is to be hired at a salary of $2,500 per year, two-thirds to be paid by the state. There was much discussion of this plan, and it was finally decided to bring it up at a later meeting, after the members have had more time to study it, and at that time they will be given an opportunity to say whether or not the plan shall be given a year's trial in Portsmouth.

New Teachers Hired
Marguerite Peterson and Ruth Adelaide Preston, at salaries of $1200 per year, and Anna Goodman, at a

Want Curriculum Change

It was reported by Superintendent Appel that the faculty of the high school had made recommendations for radical changes in the courses of study especially Latin and mathematics. The sentiment of the board was that no changes be made, but the matter was referred to the Teachers and Textbooks Committee for action. It was announced that no changes will be made in the books for the elementary schools.

To Abandon Star Yard School

Walter Kogel, superintendent of buildings, reported that the Star Yards school is in very bad repair, and that the cost of repairing it would be in excess of the worth of the building. It was decided that the colored pupils will be transferred to this city by the board, and that the other pupils be transferred to the Sciotoville school which is less than a mile from Star Yards.

Temporary Janitors

Frank Parker and Jack Chinn were appointed temporary janitors to help while coal is being put in the basements at the various buildings.

E. Gordon was awarded the contract for resurfacing the newly laid curb at the Offene street building on his bid of $75.

The report of the school enumerator was accepted and ordered placed on file.

Clerk Hazelleck reported that the insurance on the buildings will expire next month, and the finance committee will meet in a few days to make arrangements for placing the insurance with the various companies represented in the city.

Granted Leave Of Absence
Miss Myrtle Kepler, school nurse, and Harry Wagner, transient officer, were granted one month's leave of absence, starting August 1.

The schedule of $11,701.44 was allowed. Members Altman, Scudder and Jackson were present.

FALLS FROM ASHLAND WHARFBOAT; DROWNS

Solomon Miller, about 55, married, and wharfmaster at Ashland for 25 years, was drowned Friday evening about 9:45 when he fell from the wharfboat. The body was recovered about fifty minutes later not more than 20 feet from where the body disappeared from view.

Mr. Miller had been suffering with dizzy spells and had complained of pains about his heart during the afternoon. He was sitting on the river-side of the wharfboat and when the steamer, Chris Green whistled for the landing he got to his feet in a hurry, staggered and fell into the river.

Friends who chanced to be near him knew him to be a good swimmer and thought that he would not have any trouble in getting back to the wharf safely. His body never appeared and within a few minutes a search was started which resulted in the recovery of the body.

Mr. Miller is survived by his wife, two sons Stanley 27, James 11 and a daughter Dorothy 13. He also leaves three brothers William, an Ashland patrolman, George, of Kansas and Frank of Virginia, his mother Mrs. Ellen Miller and a sister Mrs. John Lavalier, of Ironton, and a sister, Mrs. Zeta Parker of Huntington.

Hornsby Equals N. L.
Home Run Record

Ed Williams, who drove the slab-men of the days of '84 to cover with his mighty pole, and slept out 27 merry-go-round drives in one season, had his mark equalled yesterday when Roger Hornsby, keeper of the halfway sack, and mile-a-minute swifter for Rickey's Cards, bounced one of Bill Ryan's benders into the left pasture bleachers for the circuit.

No one was on the bags when Roger crashed the long one, and it couldn't save the game for the Cards who are hot on the trail of the McGraw men.

PRODUCING COAL MINES
TO BE GIVEN FIRST
CALL ON COAL CARS

WASHINGTON, July 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—All producing coal mines of the country will be given first call on railroad coal cars as soon as the organization of the administration's emergency fuel control machine is completed, it was announced today by Secretary Hoover, chairman of the federal coal distributing committee.

The priorities on cars to producing mines will be passed upon by the distribution committee, Mr. Hoover said, so that all coal may be obtained under the fair prices agreed upon to prevent profiteering.

The commerce secretary said it would then be up to the states to maintain prices within their boundaries by the prevention of re-sales and profiteering.

Mr. Hoover plans to make public soon proposals being sent to all of the states for the organization of local fuel control bodies. The federal plan, he added, contemplated that each state shall take the entire responsibility for distribution and prices within its boundaries while the federal government will see to it that the states get coal from mines at fair prices. The commerce secretary in this connection stated that Henry B. Spencer, the administrative member of the president's committee, is to be known as the federal fuel distributor and not as an administrator, he explained, as was erroneously announced yesterday by the department through a typographical slip. The government, Mr. Hoover stated, is not re-establishing the old war time fuel administration system, but is chiefly concerned in the equitable distribution of coal.

The plans for emergency organization to be sent to the states, practically all of which have responded to the coal committee's appeal, Mr. Hoover said, will not be uniform, but adapted to the administrative needs of each state as conditions in New England, along the Great Lakes, the inter-mountain territory and states having a surplus of coal all vary. States far from coal centers, he declared, must be accorded greater transportation facilities than those nearer the producing fields. As an instance, he asserted, New England must be given advanced priorities over states like Indiana, Illinois or Ohio, in order to insure adequate distribution. Mr. Hoover also announced that he

Cobb Leading Major League Hitters

CHICAGO, July 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Throwing a jolt and a punch into the Detroit American League club, the veteran Ty Cobb, Tiger pilot, extended his every part performance at the bat, today is out in front of all American League contenders for 1922 hitting honors, and is leading his mates convincingly in the close pennant race. Ty Cobb is showing his men how to hit, and has carried him past George Sisler, St. Louis star, for the batting honors of the league, which he lost to Speaker and Sisler in the past two seasons. Cobb, in his last six games cracked out thirteen hits, better than two a game, and boosted his mark from .405 a week ago to .415, while Sisler who led the hitters with an average of .410 a week ago, dropped to second place with an average of .404. He was able to acquire six hits in as many games. The averages include games of Wednesday.

The "Georgia Peach" has instilled a fighting spirit in the Tigers with the result that they are topping all the clubs in team batting with an average of .307, while the St. Louis Browns are next with .301. Sisler continues to lead in total bases with 225, his 155 hits including twenty-seven doubles, eleven triples, and seven homers. He failed to increase his stolen base record, but is showing the way with thirty-four thefts.

Clarence "Tuffy" Walker, the slugging outfielder of the Athletics, bagged another home and is leading the home run clouters with twenty-four. Ken Williams, of the Browns, being the runner-up with twenty-three with Babe Ruth tagging along with seventeen.

Other leading batters for sixty or more games: Schang New York .357; Speaker, Cleveland, .350; Heilmann, Detroit, .348; Tobin, St. Louis, .347; Bassler, Detroit, .347; Ed Miller, Philadelphia, .347; Meusel, New York, .345; Blue, Detroit, .333; Witt, New York, .328.

There was practically no change in the relative standing of the batters in the National League. Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals, who has been setting the pace added one point to his mark of a week ago, and tops the list with an average of .398. Ray Grimes, the slugging first baseman of the Chicago Cubs, maintained his mark of a week ago, .395, and moved up to second place, displacing the veteran Jack Doherty of the Reds, who dropped eleven points but is holding third place with an average of .390.

Hornsby bagged two more homers, and is leading all major leaguers with a total of twenty-seven. He also crossed the plate five times in his last six games, and has taken the lead from Max Carey of the Pirates. The St. Louis star crossed the plate 80 times, while Carey scored 79 runs.

Carey, however, increased his lead for the stolen base honors by three thefts, bringing his total to twenty-seven.

Other leading batters for sixty or more games: Hollocher, Chicago, .350; J. Johnston, Brooklyn, .357; Higbee, Pittsburgh, .354; Duncanson, Cincinnati, .347; L. Miller, Chicago, .346; Schultz, St. Louis, .341; Carey, Pittsburgh, .338.

Wilbur Good of Kansas City is threatening an upset in the American Association batting race, judging from his performance within the last week. He collected ten hits in six games, boosting his position from fifth to third place in the list of leading sluggers for an average of .371.

Eddie Brown of Indianapolis continues to set the pace with an average of .382, with Jay Kirtle of Louisville running second with .376. The figures include games of Wednesday.

Becker of Kansas City is creeping up on Bunny Brief, his teammate, for honors in home run hitting. Becker smashed out a brace of homers, bringing his string up to seventeen, while Brief's total of twenty-two remains unchanged.

In base stealing, Mathews of Milwaukee and Baird of Indianapolis are tied with nineteen apiece. Other leading batters for sixty or more games: Lear, Milwaukee, .365; Mathews, Milwaukee, .361; Magee, Minneapolis, .357; Lamar, Toledo, .356; Becker, Kansas City, .348; Krueger, Indianapolis, .341.

Yanks Go Ahead Of Browns While Giants Hold Lead

NEW YORK, July 29.—Both New York clubs are again showing the way in the major league pennant races today as a result of decisively leading their St. Louis rivals in the two "crucial" series.

The Yankees, on top for the first time since June 16, held a margin of a half game over the Browns. They took their third straight from Folks' clan, 7-3. Leading the attack with two doubles and a homer, while Sam Jones returned to form, holding St. Louis to six hits. Ken Williams cracked out his 23rd homer in the first inning.

The Giants made it four out of five from the Cardinals by breaking even in the doubleheader that concluded a series marked by the sensational hitting of the champions. McGraw's club pounded out seventy hits for 42 runs in the five games and increased their lead to two and a half games.

Hornsby's 27th homer in the first game yesterday equalled the National league mark made by Ed Williamson in 1884.

Lee hit two homers in a game for the second time in the series and Cy Williams knocked out his 10th, but Cincinnati emerged an 11-7 victory in a slugfest match with Philadelphia.

Brooklyn climbed back to fifth place in the National League, when Dazzy Vance bested Babe Adams, of Pittsburgh, in a 3-2 encounter. Terry's hitting and Jones' pitching featured Chicago's 9-0 triumph over the Boston Braves.

Detroit's sixth inning rally netted five runs, enough to beat Washington, and Chicago took its second straight 10-inning game from the Red Sox, 4-3.

Philadelphia had a field day at bat off Morton and Lindsey and trounced Cleveland for the second straight day, 12-3.

CENTRAL LABOR NINE HANDED DEFEAT BY EXCELSIORS; YANKEES CLIMB INTO FIRST PLACE

Thursday, August 3—N. and W. vs. Excelsior.

Like an exposed chunk of ice, the Central Labor lead in the Industrial League is slowly melting away. Quite a few points evaporated last evening when the Excelsiors, through some hard hitting off the offerings of Mr. Frebis, won over the leaders by a score of 6 to 4, making all the runs in the first three innings while the Brown county southwinds were on the rubber. Lloyd Smith was called in from left field and he did the pitching the rest of the way and allowed but one hit, a line single to left by Ted Doherty, the premier hitter of the organization. But one man got to second base during Smith's regime and had been on the rubber, the entire distance it is likely the Herder Herd would have cashed in. Smith may not possess as many curves as some people, and his speed may not be as terrific as others, but he knows what to do with that ball, and that is the biggest part of a pitcher's education. Incidentally he drove in three of the four runs and all in all was the class of the party. He was opposed on the mound by Mr. Evans, the collegate, and a pitcher whom the opposition declares has not got enough to hit. But all the same Evans allowed four hits and had but little trouble in registering his first victory. He will be seen regularly on the mound for the Shoemakers and Manager Josephus Barber is not at all worried now concerning his staff of boxmen.

The game last evening was limited to six innings, and was not much of an exhibition. Too many errors at critical moments. It's all right to spill the bean now and then, but not when they hurt. The outfielding of Cliff Lowry was the best seen in the league this season. Lowry not only covers a large space of territory, but he gets that ball away from him quicker than scout and generally to the right place.

The game was played in this fashion:

FIRST INNING
Stewart rolled to Cooper. Weber singled to center. Doherty singled to short. Barber walked, filling the bases. Hengen singled to right. Weber scored. Doherty scored on Lowry's sacrifice fly to right. Elsevier flied to Kerner at short. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

Smith tripled to right, scoring Stillwell and Dunham. R. Kerner walked. Cooper popped to Evans. R. Kerner stole. Grimm fouled to Weber. Two runs, one hit, one error.

SECOND INNING
By HELEN E. OAKENSHILL

SAUL

SAMUEL made his sons judges, but they did not rule justly. The people wanted a king. Samuel told them what manner of man he would be.

A man of Israel named Kish had a son called Saul. The asses of Kish were lost; Saul and his servant went out to find them. They came to a city where the servant said a prophet lived who might help them. The Lord had told Samuel that he would send that day a man, who would be king of Israel. When Samuel saw Saul the Lord said, Behold the man whom I spoke to thee of.

A RIVER OF GOLD

NINE residents of Katonah, N. Y., described as "substantial business men" are on their way home after getting about 3,000 miles away on an expedition in search of "a gold-paved river" in the wilds of the Belgian Congo. They got as far as Belgium.

During the World War a neighbor of theirs had served with a cavalry force in Belgium, Africa. One day, he said, his horse stumbled with him down a deep ravine, landing beside "a gold-paved river." He picked up a handful of gold, kept the secret from his fellow soldiers and disposed of the nuggets to a jeweler for $1,600. When he got home he told his story to his friends and they formed a company to secure the golden riches. They sailed from New York last month, after insuring their lives heavily for the benefit of their families. When the insurance companies learned later of the nature of the expedition the policies were cancelled. This fact, added to the argonauts' failure to obtain official permission from the Belgian government to conduct their search, made them so discouraged that they turned around and sailed for home.

It is suggested that the gold seekers will have a hard time living down the ridicule to which they will be subjected by their fellow townsmen. This may be doubted. If they are honest with themselves the fellow townsmen will admit that they would have liked to go along with the gold hunters. The germ of treasure seeking is in the blood. It has been responsible for the opening up of vast territories to civilization and the development of their resources for the use of man.

These substantial business men showed that they were only children of a larger growth when they were dazzled by the tale of golden wealth awaiting their coming. Does anybody blame them? They showed that years of the prosaic business routine had not dulled their sense of romance and adventure. In his famous lecture Dr. Russell H. Conwell suggests that there are "acres of diamonds" for all near home, only waiting to be picked up. But the more distant treasure, the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, has always and will ever possess the stronger lure.

A "river paved with gold"! How much is a one-way ticket to Africa!

THE MIGHT OF QUALITY

SOME public men have ability, but they haven't the courage to faithfully display it; other men have courage, but they haven't the ability to use it effectively.

Ohio is fortunate in that she has one senator, who has both ability and courage. Ask any citizen, no matter what his politics, which one stands out pre-eminent for this combined quality and he will answer unhesitatingly—Atlee Pomerene.

And no one, who judges by the record will dispute that Atlee Pomerene has served the state and the nation well. He doesn't talk as much as some others that are senators and still others that aspire to be, but there is never any doubt about what he means and above all what he is going to do when he has spoken.

His first thought is ever to stand staunch and true to the interests and wishes of his constituents. He does not in self righteousness and conceit set his view and his judgment against their expressed desire, but he acts as they instruct him to act. In voting against prohibition and universal suffrage he offered only the single and sufficient reason that the people of Ohio by their ballots had so instructed him to vote. In his conviction that was a mandate to their representative against which no individual view of that representative should be considered, to say nothing of prevailing.

There is no other senator more respected and esteemed by his colleagues than he, because all recognize that Pomerene not only has brains, but he is without fear in the discharge of his political obligation. For that reason he has a powerful influence in shaping legislation, where the matter does not take on a purely partisan cast. And here it may be remarked that he himself has that fairness that lends him to measuring a measure by its merit rather than from any political effect it may be supposed to have.

Because of this he has been able to shape legislation to a remarkable degree. His championship of such bills as the federal farm loan, federal trade commission, non-partisan tariff commission, the federal aid for good roads of 1916—which has been continued ever since—the child labor and the thirty peace contracts between the United States and as many other countries, was potent in placing them on the statute book.

But if he had done but one single thing that he did, sponsoring the federal reserve act, that one thing would entitle him to the unhesitating support of all the people. That act has already saved the nation from ruinous panics and will save it from many more. It is recognized as the wisest and most effectual financial legislation ever enacted.

Senator Pomerene has no opposition, worthy of the name, but he is a candidate for re-nomination. That is no reason why any Democrat should neglect to go to the polls and vote for Atlee Pomerene. In fact it furnishes the identical best reason why he should go, that intelligence, fearlessness and honesty in public service are desired, appreciated and recognized.

So do not fail to mark your ticket for Atlee Pomerene on August 8th.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED

You eat slowly and quietly, not only for the sake of your health but out of consideration of others.

Among the most flagrant violations of table etiquette are the bolting of food, noisy mastication, clashing of knives and forks on the plates and the scraping of one's plate in pursuit of the last morsel.

dogs are registered. Each has its private kennel and there is an open space in the rear where the guests may romp. A veterinarian is on constant duty. The charge is from $1 to $3 a day, according to the size of the quarters. The food is especially prepared and dogs that are to remain there for six weeks may take a course of training for an extra fee, which makes them more polite. The proprietor says the bull dog is the easiest to handle and the most difficult is the chow.

Up to the minute sign on a Broadway movie theatre: "Park your flapper here for the evening."

Along toward dawn one of those pink-jowled satyrlic Buddhas sat alone at his table in a midnight supper club. He puffed in meditative reflection at a long, black cigar. A waiter fidgeted near him with the check. "We close, sir, at sun up," ventured the serving man. "Oh," said the rounder, "does the sun still come up?"

When It Rains

Do you settle back and shirk
When storms interrupt your work,
Or do you keep right on, the storm
disdaining?

It doesn't indicate much grit
If the weather makers you quit.
Cheer up! Put on a smile when it is raining.

There is more to making hay
Than the weather for the day.
Don't waste a bit of good time in complaining.

Grab hold the grindstone crank
And give that a pull and rank
Just to sharpen up the tools while it is raining.

Generous!

Maggie's sweetheart, a proverbially tight-fisted Scot, had taken her out for the afternoon, and that was about all. They rode some distance on the trolley, turned around and rode home again. Never was mention made of food or entertainment.

Back within her own gateway, Maggie, who had keenly felt the neglect, sarcastically handed a dime to Sandy.

"For the carfare you spent on me," she said, meaningly.

"Hoos, toots, woman," returned Sandy, pocketing the coin. "There was nae hurry. Saturday would have been time enough."

Matter of Taste

"What is the best color for a bride?"

"I prefer a white one myself."
